TRYING $1,000 SUIT SMASH AT NORWICH TOWN

Damages of $1,000 are sought in a suit brought by William H. Robinson of Norwich against Lester Benditt also of Norwich, trial of which was started here today.

The following jury is trying the case: Michael J. Ryan, John H. Smith, George R. Burgess, Frank G. Denison, George R. Hempstead, Groton; Fred Derrin, Montville; Billings T. Avery, LeRoy; Seth C. Williams, Groton; Herbert D. Wiley, Groton; Joseph Hardwick, Waterford; Harrison Bond, East Lyme.

The plaintiff was next called and told his wife, who was Mary M. Robinson, was a fruit, vegetable, fish and older peddler and that on the night of the accident he was returning from a cider mill.

Robinson claims that on Sept. 16, 1921 he was driving his horse and wagon at Norwich Town when at a point near Nightman's switch, an automobile which was driven by the defendant struck the wagon and threw him out, injuring him severely and demolishing the wagon.

Dr. Charles C. Gildersleeve of Norwich was the first witness called and he testified to attending Robinson after the accident. Robinson, he said, was suffering from a severe bruise on his head and contusions of both arms and legs and chest.

Y. M. C. A. DIRECTORS HEAR
HIGHLY ENCOURAGING REPORTS
One of the most interesting meetings held by the Y. M. C. A. directors in many months was held Tuesday evening, Jan. 16, 15 o'clock the usual supper was served by members of the auxiliary, with Mrs. Edwin Hill and Mrs. Emory H. Davis in charge. After the supper the business of the evening was taken up. The reports of the various departments all indicated that the work was in healthy condition and that the association has a bright future.

Twenty six new members are reported as having applied for membership during the month of December. The interest in the boys' work was reported as on the increase, and the social activities were large during the past month. Preparations for the annual meeting will soon be made, and it is hoped that this will be the most enthusiastic annual meeting held in a number of years. With the opening of the large new gymnasium, elegant shower bath rooms and standard swimming pool in the fall, there is expectation of great increase of interest in the present good interest in the association work.

LARGE CLAIM DISALLOWED
IN HOXIE BANKRUPTCY
An adjourned hearing in the bankruptcy of Frederick W. Hoxie, a former cattle dealer of Lebanon, was held here Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock before Bankruptcy Judge Thomas M. Shields. Mr. Hoxie, who was absent at the date of the first hearing, was present this time and it was learned that he had been advised that he did not need to attend the first hearing.

No examination of the bankrupt was made Tuesday, but the hearing was continued to Jan. 20 with the expectation that Mr. Hoxie may be able to make some composition with his creditors by that time.

Joseph B. Parley of Lebanon, N. H., also a cattle dealer, whose claim had been filed at $1,200 in the schedule made out by Mr. Hoxie at the date of the hearing and presented a claim for $14,658.75, which was disallowed by the trustee, Frank N. Gardner. After an examination of the accounts it was agreed that the claim would amount to about $1,300. Attorney Edmund W. Perkins appeared for several of the creditors.

Foley's Honey and Tar COMPOUND

AN OLD RELIABLE FAMILY
REMEDY, recommended for coughs, colds, tickling of the throat, spasmodic croup, whooping cough, in grippe, and bronchial coughs, hoarseness, etc.

The First Dose Gave Relief
C. E. Summers, Haldreid, Neb., writes "Some time ago I contracted a very severe cough and cold due to exposure. My cough was so bad I could hardly sleep for two or three nights. A friend of mine recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and I got a bottle. The very first dose relieved me. I took a second dose before going to bed and can truthfully say I am now completely cured. I feel like a new man and my cough was much better. I am sure that if you are troubled with a cough, cold or any other respiratory trouble, that you will find Foley's Honey and Tar Compound a most reliable and effective remedy."

For more than thirty years
Foley's Honey and Tar has been used with satisfaction and success.

BIG INCREASE IN NUMBER OF IDLE FREIGHT CARS
Washington, Jan. 17.—The number of freight cars idle because of business conditions increased by 27,288 between January 1 and January 8, according to reports to the car service division of the American Railway Association. On the latter date the number of cars idle was given as 418,577.

This is approximately 28,000 cars more than have been reported idle, because of business conditions, in the last four or five years," the statement said. "The former peak having been reached April 8, last, when a total of more than 618,000 was reached."

SAILS WITH 7,000 TON CARGO
FOR STARVING RUSSIA
Baltimore, Md., Jan. 17.—Laden with about 7,000 tons of corn and managed by an all-American crew from master to mess boy, the steamship Western Maid sailed today for Reval, a Baltic Sea port, where the cargo will be unloaded for starving Russia.

The purpose of selecting all native Americans is to refute foreign propaganda being promulgated in shipping circles, according to Captain F. H. Haines, head of the local sea service bureau of the shipping board, that American seamen are the equals of the men of some of the seafaring races of Europe.

GERALDINE FARRAR TO ENTER CONCERT FIELD
New York, Jan. 17.—Geraldine Farrar will not sing with the Metropolitan Opera Company next season. This announcement was made tonight by General Manager Gatti Casazza, who explained that the famous soprano had declined to renew her contract with the opera company which expires at the end of this season, because she desires to devote herself to concert work next year.

JOSEPH FINE & Co.

115 Main Street, Norwich
An old business men's adage:
"Buying right, is half sold."
That is probably the reason for the manner in which our goods are selling.

They look different; they feel different, and considering the market values, we will repeat, as they say in the "classics"—
"The prices will take you off your feet."

Direct your friends here for their clothes and they will become even stauncher friends.

New Britain.—At Exeter, N. H., Saturday, the jury in the superior court returned a verdict for E. E. Tucker, Boston broker, to recover $300 from Mrs. William C. French, mother of his wife and wife of the principal of the New Britain Central Junior High school. In his suit against Mr. and Mrs. French for the alienation of his wife's affection, the claim of Tucker was that his mother-in-law induced his wife to leave him after they had lived together for a time and to submit to an illegal operation.

DIED.
